CONTINUATION OF COMPLAINT:
Rosario GUTIERREZ-Rosales*PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On April 26, 2008, Border Patrol Agent E. Velazquez was patrolling near Dulzura, California. This area is approximately twelve miles east of the Otay Mesa, California Port of Entry and five miles north of the United States/Mexico International Boundary.

At approximately 8:00 p.m., Agent Velazquez responded to an observation by Border Patrol Agent M. Schilf who was operating a night scope, of ten individuals running on a trail. Agent Velasquez was directed to the area by Agent Schilf. Agent Velazquez approached the group and identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent. He then conducted an Immigration field interview on all ten subjects. All ten subjects, including one later identified as the defendant Rosalio GUTIERREZ-Rosales, admitted to being citizens and nationals of Mexico present in the United States without proper immigration documents that would allow them to enter or remain in the United States legally. At approximately 9:30 p.m., all subjects were arrested and transported to the Brown Field Border Patrol Station for further processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on January 9, 2008 through San Ysidro, California. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.
